Iran’s President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad has been vilified in the Western media for daring to imagine “a world without Israel.”

But according to news reports, Henry Kissinger and sixteen American intelligence agencies agree that in the near future, Israel will no longer exist.

The New York Post quotes Kissinger “word for word”: In 10 years, there will be no more Israel.

Kissinger’s statement is flat and unqualified. He is not saying that Israel is in danger, but could be saved if we just gave it additional trillions of dollars and smashed enough of its enemies with our military. He is not saying that if we elect Netanyahu’s old friend Mitt Romney, Israel could somehow be salvaged. He is not saying that if we bomb Iran, Israel might survive. He is not offering a way out. He is simply stating a fact: In 2022, Israel will no longer exist.

The US Intelligence Community agrees, though perhaps not on the precise 2022 expiration date. Sixteen US intelligence agencies with a combined budget over USD70 billion have issued an 82-page analysis titled “Preparing for a Post-Israel Middle East.”

The US intelligence report observes that the 700,000 Israeli settlers illegally squatting on land stolen in 1967 - land that the entire world agrees belongs to Palestine, not Israel - are not going to pack up and leave peacefully. Since the world will never accept their ongoing presence on stolen land, Israel is like South Africa in the late 1980s.

The extremist Likud coalition governing Israel, according to the US intelligence report, is increasingly condoning and supporting rampant violence and lawlessness by illegal settlers. The report states that the brutality and criminality of the settlers, and the growing apartheid-style infrastructure including the apartheid wall and the ever-more-draconian system of checkpoints, are indefensible, unsustainable, and out of synch with American values.

The sixteen US intelligence agencies agree that Israel cannot withstand the coming pro-Palestinian juggernaut consisting of the Arab Spring, the Islamic Awakening, and the rise of the Islamic Republic of Iran.

In the past, dictatorships in the region kept a lid on the pro-Palestinian aspirations of their people. But those dictatorships began to topple with the fall of the pro-Israel Shah of Iran in 1979 and the establishment of a democratic Islamic Republic, whose government had little choice but to reflect its people's opposition to Israel. The same process - the overthrow of dictators who worked with, or at least tolerated, Israel - is now accelerating throughout the region. The result will be governments that are more democratic, more Islamic, and far less friendly to Israel.

The US intelligence community report says that ...

Note from Pastor Kevin Lea: I will not be dealing with the many false statements made by this author pertaining to the history of the Israeli/Palestinian land dispute. Nor will I waste time rebutting the unsubstantiated claim that the leaders of Israel were behind the 9/11 attack. Instead I want to address the stated notion that Israel will no longer be a nation ten years from now.

God promised that the Jews would return to the land of Israel after being dispersed among the Gentile nations for a very long time (Ezekiel 36-37; Jeremiah 23, 30; Joel 3; Amos 9:11-15; Zephaniah 3:14-20; Zechariah 12, 14, and many others). Some of these passages emphasize that after this re-gathering, the Jews will never again be removed from Jerusalem, even though one day all the nations of the world would come against her (Zechariah 12:3).

For nearly 2,000 years, beginning with the Roman destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, the Jews lived in Gentile nations as their ancient homeland lay in ruins.

Then, on May 14, 1948, she again became a nation, in one day, just as the prophet Isaiah had predicted 2700 years earlier (Isaiah 66:8-9). Since then, Israel has survived three major wars (in 1948, 1967, and 1973) and several small ones, even though they were massively outnumbered in military equipment and manpower.

How could this be? How could a nation of just a few million Jews withstand their Arab/Muslim neighbors, who have hundreds-of-millions of people and all the military equipment that their oil dollars can buy? Some Muslims will answer that it is because they (the Arabs) have not shown enough devotion to Allah, and therefore their god (who they say is greater than all other gods) did not come to their aid.

This mindset has contributed to the radicalization of some of the Muslims in the Middle East. Their fundamentalist leaders are saying that if they topple the Heads of State that have made unholy alliances with the infidels, then they will receive the blessings of Allah and be able to rid the world of the "Jewish entity (Israel)" in military victory. The rhetoric now coming from the new leaders of Egypt make it obvious that this has been one of the goals of the Arab Spring uprising and the ascension of the Muslim Brotherhood to power throughout the region.

I can see how so-called intelligence agencies would, based solely on human understanding of the geopolitical shifts in the Middle East, believe and predict that the Jewish State is destined for eventual annihilation. They believe, given current numbers and trends, that future history books will describe today's nation of Israel as merely a hiccup on the timeline of history, an ill-conceived plan that was eventually undone by a war in the Middle East, which appears to us to be imminent.

However, these think-tank organizations have failed to acknowledge the all-powerful and very interested Player in their midst; the God of Israel who laughs and mocks at the threats against His people (Psalm 2).

God has proven throughout history that those who fight God's plan for His people Israel will themselves be destroyed. The Pharaoh of Egypt in the days of Moses learned this lesson the hard way, and so have many others.

But this is a great time to put the God of the Bible and His prophetic Scriptures to the test. If the 16 "intelligence" agencies and the globalist guru Henry Kissinger are right, and Israel ceases to be a nation of Jews within ten years, then the prophetic word of God cannot be trusted, and I will stop being a pastor (either because I don't accurately understand God's Word, or the Scriptures are in error – in either case disqualifying me).

However, if Israel is miraculously spared from the murderous plotting of her neighbors and so-called allies in the coming years, as Psalm 83, Isaiah 17, Ezekiel 38-39, Zechariah 12/14 and Revelation 19 foretell, then it will be Kissinger and every other prideful man/woman who thinks there is no God who rules over the affairs of the earth who will cease to exist, and it will be the nation of Israel that survives.

Indeed the Jews are destined to remain in at least a portion of Israel and Jerusalem until their Messiah, Jesus, returns to deliver them from an onslaught of all the nations of the world who are gathered together by a future world ruler – the Antichrist, in the Battle of Armageddon. At that time, when the Jews are about to be wiped out, Jesus destroys the invading armies. The surviving Jews will then embrace their true Messiah when He returns in power and great glory to finally and forever give them the peace they have so desperately sought for many millennia.

As a Gentile believer in the Jewish Messiah, I am so grateful that Jesus came the first time 2,000 years ago to die on the cross for my sins so that I could be forgiven and allowed to have everlasting life with the loving and compassionate God of the Bible. I hope you, dear reader, are grateful too. If not, why not?

Jeremiah 31:35-37: Thus says the LORD, Who gives the sun for a light by day, the ordinances of the moon and the stars for a light by night, Who disturbs the sea, and its waves roar (The LORD of Hosts is His name): "If those ordinances depart from before Me," says the LORD, "then the seed of Israel shall also cease from being a nation before Me forever." Thus says the LORD: "If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD. (NKJV)

Zechariah 12:10: "And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn. (NKJV)

Zechariah 14:1-3: Behold, the day of the LORD is coming, and your spoil will be divided in your midst. For I will gather all the nations to battle against Jerusalem; the city shall be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city shall go into captivity, but the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as He fights in the day of battle. (NKJV)
